Master of Arts in Asian Studies
Now Accepting Applications for Fall 2019

The Master of Arts in Asian Studies (MAAS) at FIU is a growing interdisciplinary program in the prestigious Green School of International and Public Affairs drawing on excellent faculty resources in various departments, including Art History, Environmental Studies, Global and Sociocultural Studies, History, Modern Languages, Politics and International Relations, Religious Studies, and more.

*Online courses are available in several areas of concentration
Joint MA/PhD programs with International Relations, History, Sociology
Asian language classes can be taken for graduate credit

Thematic Areas of Study
Political Economy of China and Japan
Chinese and Japanese Society and Culture
Politics of East Asia
Asia and World Affairs
Asian Religious Traditions
Asian Arts and Literature

Resources at Florida International University in South Florida
Annual Conferences
Ongoing Lectures
Edited Journal (Japan Studies Review)
Other Top International Programs
Excellent Advising and Outreach
Internship Opportunities
Asian Museum Collections
Morikami Museum and Japanese Gardens
Consulate General of Japan in Miami
Asian-related NGOs

Graduate Certificates
Asian Studies
Asian Globalization
Japanese Studies

CORE FACULTY
Dr. Thomas Breslin, Professor
China and International Relations
Dr. Mitzi Carter, Lecturer
Japanese Anthropology
Dr. Young Rae Choi, Assistant Professor
East Asian Geography
Dr. Steven Heine, Professor and Director
East Asian Religions and Culture
Dr. Matthew Marr, Associate Professor
Japanese and Comparative Sociology
Dr. Amy Marshall, Assistant Professor
Japanese History
Dr. Eric Messersmith, Lecturer
Japanese Politics and Culture
Dr. Steven Vose, Assistant Professor
Indian Religions and Society
Dr. Lidu Yi, Associate Professor
Asian Art History
Dr. Julie Zeng, Associate Professor
China and International Relations

LANGUAGES
Japanese: Naoko Komura
Dr. Asuka Mashav
Masako Kubota
Chinese: Dr. Ma Li
Dr. Shenggao Wang
Korean: Sunmin Cho

For more information, please contact the Asian Studies Program
Phone: 305-348-1914 | http://asian.fiu.edu | asian@fiu.edu
ASIAN STUDIES-RELATED CAREER OPPORTUNITIES

A recent survey of Alumni of FIU’s interdisciplinary Asian Studies MA program has yielded the following results; we have placed our former students in these types of goals in business, education, government, museums, professions, translations, and more:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Business Management and Sales</th>
<th>Doctoral Studies</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Understanding commercial and cultural exchanges with Asia opens doors for business opportunities here and abroad.</td>
<td>An Asian Studies MA is a stepping-stone for PhD-level research in history and culture, literature and linguistics, religion and sociology, or world affairs and political science.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Professional Degrees</th>
<th>English Teaching in Asia</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>The Asian Studies MA can lead to further advanced learning in gaining an MBA or a Law degree with an international focus.</td>
<td>Studying Asian languages while gaining study abroad experience can lead to opportunities for teaching English as a second language in China, Japan, or S. Korea.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Environmental Consultant</th>
<th>Teaching Careers</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>An alumni who came to us with an engineering degree said that adding Chinese language and culture to her portfolio was a boon for her career involved with environmental issues.</td>
<td>Our former students are teaching classes at various K-12 schools or at colleges and universities.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Higher Education Administration</th>
<th>Government and NGO Positions</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Exposure to the diversity of Eastern societies prepares one for supervisory and policy positions in a multicultural educational environment.</td>
<td>Asian Studies provides a significant background for working in departments of the arts, defense education, humanities, and state, in addition to non-profit and foreign relations agencies.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Translation and Communications</th>
<th>University International Programs</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Companies are always on the lookout for employees with strong language proficiencies or bilingual skills in addition to IT capabilities.</td>
<td>With substantial foreign experience, working to create global linkages at the university level is a strong possibility.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Museum Curator or Educator</th>
<th>Trade and Tourism</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Several of our graduates have secured positions at various archives and museums, including the prestigious Morikami Museum and Japanese Gardens located in South Florida.</td>
<td>Knowledge of Asian social behavior and geography is a highly valued and useful expertise.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>