

Institute for Asian Studies

Title VI South Florida Consortium for Asian Arts and Culture
Cosponsored by The Japanese Consul-General of Miami
FIU School of Music
Morikami Museum and Japanese Gardens

Southern Japan Seminar Fall 2002 Meeting and FIU Music Festival

Panel 1: "Japanese Aesthetics"

President: John C. Maraldo, University of North Florida

"Art, the Ethical Self, and Political Eremitism: Fujiwara Seika's Thoughts on Landscape Painting."

John Tucker, East Carolina University

"Japanese Landscape Gardens and Japanese Painting Formats: Relationships and Differences."

Joan O'Mara, Washington and Lee University

"Early Modern Japanese Poetry" (Tentative)

Cheryl Crowley, Emory University

Discussant: Steven Heine, Florida International University

Panel 2: "Visual and Performing Arts, Now and Then"

President: Linda Zatlín, "Producing the FIU Music Festival: Japan Night 2002"

Frederick Kaufman, Florida International University; Masaru Kawasaki, Japanese Musician

"Exchange: A Unique Collaboration of Japanese and American Ceramics Artists"

Tori Arpad, Florida International University

"The History of the Yamato Colony and Morikami Museum in South Florida"

Tom Gregersen, Morikami Museum and Japanese Gardens

Panel 3: "Japan in the World"

President: Jan Bardsley, University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill

"Noble Savages and Distant Edens: Encounters with the West in Natsume Sō seki's Sanshirō"

Inger Brodey, University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill

Discussant: David Phillips, Wake Forest University

"Science Without Compulsion': Statistics, American Expertise, and Technocracy in Post-World War II Japan."

Scott O'Bryan, University of Alabama

Discussant: W. Miles Fletcher, University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill

"Learning to Be Rural Women: The Micropractices of Gender Reproduction in Contemporary Japan"

Mohásci Gergely, University of Tokyo

Discussant: Christopher Nelson, University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill

Screening:

Women in Japan: Memories of the Past, Dreams for the Future (52 mins)

Documentary video by Joanne Hershfield and Jan Bardsley