

AFTJ - Association of Florida Teachers of Japanese

Dear Teachers and Students,

On Saturday, March 23, 2013 the 2012 Florida Statewide Japanese Speech & Skit Contest will be conducted in the GL (Green Library) 100, at Florida International University (Modesto A. Maidique Campus) in Miami.

There will be award categories at the middle school, high school, and college levels, ranging from Level 1 to Level 7 and, for public speech only, a special award category for students who lived in Japan more than one year. The students should be enrolled in the level at which they are currently studying (block schedule schools included). Competition rules and judging guidelines are included in this packet of information along with the registration form.

Below is a list of important changes and additions instituted last year and that will again be included in this year's competition:

1. In the Speech Contest, participants are allowed to use a digital visual aid (a series of up to five pictures on a PowerPoint or PC-compatible program) to enhance the audience's experience of the speech. Students must bring their visual on a USB drive. This visual aid does NOT factor into scoring; the judges will still be looking for a well-prepared and performed speech, regardless of how visually appealing the aid is.
2. In the Skit Contest, schools may submit an unlimited number of teams per level. This is to ensure the participation of anyone who would like to compete, especially from schools that have numerous students in their Japanese program.
3. Unlike previous years in both the Speech and Skit Contests, awards will be given to students at all levels earning specifically-defined achievement levels, based on the average of the judges' scores. So there may be more than one medal awarded for any one place at a level in an award category (middle, high, college).
4. This year, we will again offer our state Yonkoma Manga Contest, Music Video and Japanese program promotional video. In an attempt to include students who may not be able to attend on the day of the event, we would like to extend an invitation to submit yonkoma manga, music video and Japanese program promotional video for awards. For Yonkoma Manga, students may create these manga by hand or with digital tools. They may also work individually or in pairs; both students must be currently enrolled Japanese language students. We would like to feature these manga, music video and Japanese program promotional video during our March 23rd event as a digital slide show and possibly post exceptional examples on the AFTJ website.

All contestants' teachers must be members of the Association of Florida Teachers of Japanese (AFTJ). It is strongly encouraged that teachers accompany their students to the competition.

Registration will begin at 12:30pm and end at 1:00pm, with the prepared speech category beginning promptly at 1:00pm. Parents and friends are welcome to join the audience.
