Japanese Traditional Music Special Presentation at FIU

Tuesday, June 20, 2017 | 4:00 PM - 6:00 PM | FIU Modesto A. Maidique Campus | GL 100 B

The Morikami Museum and Japanese Gardens proudly announces the establishment of a yearly Japanese traditional music education program.

Join renowned professional musicians, koto player Dr. Joseph Gashō Amato and shakuhachi player Professor Christopher Yohmei Blasdel at FIU for a special presentation. Learn about Japanese traditional musical instruments, the 13-string koto and shakuhachi, with our visiting artists. Observe and hear a demonstration of the instruments and learn about the fascinating musical history and traditions of Japan from Japanese music professor Dr. Minako Waseda.
