

SAMPLE OF TITLE, APPROVAL FORM, ABSTRACT, AND TABLE OF CONTENT FOR MASTER'S ESSAY

FLORIDA INTERNATIONAL UNIVERSITY

Miami, Florida

MEDIEVAL ZEN IN JAPAN

An essay submitted in partial fulfillment of the requirements for the degree of

MASTER OF ARTS

in

ASIAN STUDIES

by

Stella Rosenberg

2007

To: Director Steven Heine
Asian Studies

This essay, written by Stella Rosenberg, and entitled Medieval Zen in Japan, having been approved in respect to style and intellectual content, is referred to you for judgment.

I have read this essay and recommend that it be approved.

---

NAME, Primary Professor
Date of Approval: April 20, 2007

---

NAME, Secondary Professor
TITLE

---

Signature of Asian Studies Director or
Asian Studies Graduate Director

Florida International University, 2007

ABSTRACT OF THE ESSAY
MEDIEVAL ZEN IN JAPAN

by

Stella Rosenberg

Florida International University, 2007

Miami, Florida

NAME, Primary Professor
NAME, Secondary Professor

Begin typing the abstract here, double-spaced. The abstract must include the following components: purpose of the research, methodology, findings, and conclusion. The body of the abstract is limited to 150 words. The abstract may consist of one page only.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

I. INTRODUCTION.....	1
II. HISTORY OF JAPANESE RELIGION.....	4
Break it down in sections
III. MEDIEVAL ZEN IN JAPAN.....	15
Break it down in sections
IV. ZEN IN MODERN JAPAN.....	20
Break it down in sections
V. ZEN IN POST-WAR JAPAN.....	25
Break it down in sections
VI. CONCLUSION.....	30
Summary .....	38
LIST OF REFERENCES.....	41

NOTE: Chapters 2-5 should be a content analysis. The titles and number of chapters given are just representative. The total number of chapters and their titles should reflect the progression appropriate for your topic.