

JAPAN STUDIES REVIEW
VOLUME ONE
1997

A publication of the Southern Japan Seminar

CONTENTS

Editor's Introduction	i
Contributors	iv
Empowering Japan's Premiership: Bureaucratic or Political Reform Robert C. Angel	1
Career Concerns and Reform in Japan's Lower House Electoral System Brian Woodall	15
Japanese Negotiating Style Redux Michael Blaker	31
Towards a New Paradigm: America's Future in East Asia: "The Pacific Compact of Outreach and Stability" James E. Auer	45
American and Japanese Educational Issues from an Economic Perspective Kiyoshi Kawahito	57
Labor Unionism and the Japanese Corporate Pension System Yutaka Horiba and Kazuo Yoshida	69
Innovations in Labor Management Relations: Japan's National Railroad, 1907-1920 W. Dean Kinzley,	81
A Study of Early-Meiji Press Radicalism: The Case of Sōmō zasshi (The People's Journal) John Allen Tucker	93