Guest Speaker: LIZA DALBY

“The Geisha Influence on Kimono Fashion”

With commentary from Associate Professor and Director of Asian Studies at University of Florida, Dr. Joseph Murphy

Liza Crihfield Dalby is an American anthropologist and writer specializing in Japanese culture. She is also the first westerner to have trained as a geisha.

Her book Geisha is based on her experiences with the geisha community in Kyoto's Pontochō. Dalby received her Ph.D. from Stanford University in 1978.

Date: January 28th, 2011
Place: Marc Pavilion, Modesto A. Maidique Campus
Time: 11am—1pm