FIU ASIAN STUDIES PROGRAM REQUIREMENTS CHECKLIST

UNDERGRADUATE PROGRAM CERTIFICATE

The Asian Studies Program offers a number of Certificate Programs, which are available to degree-seeking students at the undergraduate level. Each certificate requires 18 credits of studies with a specific focus on an aspect of Asian culture, society, language, or business. Students may enroll in and take courses toward a certificate program prior to graduation; however, certificates cannot be awarded until the student has attained a B.A. or its equivalent from FIU. Contact asian@fiu.edu for more information.

Below, you will find a worksheet that will help you evaluate your course progress:

ASIAN STUDIES UNDERGRADUATE CERTIFICATE

The Asian Studies certificate requires a total of eighteen (18) credits and includes the following:

a) Two semesters (6 credits) of Introductory-level (1000) or higher in Chinese, Japanese, Korean or other Asian Language. (First year language courses are 5 credits each, for a total of 10, but a maximum of 6 credits will be applied to the certificate).

b) 12 credits focusing on Asian Studies and Asian Area Studies coursework listed on the catalog to be chosen with the approval of the Director (with a "C" or better), with 6 credits of ASN prefix courses; in addition to the courses listed in the catalog, relevant special topics, area studies, comparative studies, or study abroad courses may also be applied. Students should consult with an advisor for the certificate program about current course offerings and a full list of courses accepted for the certificate.

Unlike other Certificates offered by the Asian Studies Program, this certificate cannot be done in conjunction with the Asian Studies B.A. and/or Minor.

NOTE: AN ONLINE VERSION OF THIS CERTIFICATE IS AVAILABLE FOR FULLY ONLINE DEGREE-SEEKING STUDENTS.
